

Finance Committee-Call for Interest

*What We Teach Our Children, 2008
Christi Belcourt*

The Toronto Birth Centre (TBC) is looking for interested volunteers, particularly those with prior experience in finance within the not-for-profit sector, or with a keen interest in learning, to form a Finance Committee. The Finance Committee will make recommendations to the TBC Board of Directors related to financial planning, the annual budget, audit engagement, monitoring of internal controls and accountability policies and the creation of new policies/processes.

This opportunity will require a two-hour commitment at least twice per quarter at pre-determined times. Members must be at least 18 years of age and reside in the Greater Toronto Area.

If you would like to apply for this volunteer opportunity, please submit a current CV and a letter of intent outlining how you can contribute to the work of the organization to: tbcfinancecommittee@gmail.com.

If you have questions about the call, please contact Roberta Pike at: ed@torontobirthcentre.com or Aimée Carbonneau at: acarbonneau@sgmt.ca.

Submissions must be received by noon November 24, 2016.
