

Call for Members - Community Council

*What We Teach Our Children, 2008
Christi Belcourt*

The Toronto Birth Centre Community Council is seeking new members!

The Community Council works closely with the Board of Directors, the Midwives Council and the Toronto Birth Centre staff in areas such as strategic planning, community engagement, quality assurance, and cultural programming. The Community Council plays an important role in the appointment of individuals to the TBC Board of Directors.

The Community Council aims to recruit members who can advise the board on how it can best accomplish the objectives of TBC, in alignment with its vision, core values, Indigenous framework, and current strategic plan in a culturally secure and safe manner.

We are seeking Council members who:

- are Indigenous
- are 18 years of age or older and reside in the Greater Toronto Area
- have knowledge and/or lived experience in the areas of Indigenous health and / or Indigenous reproductive health, and interest in supporting Indigenous families and community.

The Community Council meets on a quarterly basis at a pre-determined time. This is a voluntary opportunity to foster and support cultural integrity in policies, guidelines and programs used by the Toronto Birth Centre. The TBC's Community Council encourage community members of all levels of experience, education and cultural knowledge to apply.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the TBC Community Council, kindly download the required TBC Community Council membership form. Send in your completed application, a statement of interest and your current resume to reception@torontobirthcentre.ca

The Community Council will be accepting TBC membership form and supporting documentation on an ongoing bases; the first round of applications be reviewed in January 2020.