

Mukwa (Facility Peacekeeping/Security) Part-Time (0.20 FTE=1 day/week) Employment Opportunity

The Toronto Birth Centre (TBC) provides a unique, culturally safe and comfortable birth space for parents expecting a normal birth in the care of midwives; a place which is also welcoming to their extended family members and support system. TBC is also a place for the community to access educational, professional and community resources related to birth and parenting and to enhance their overall well-being.

The TBC is searching for one individual to fill a part-time position of Mukwa. Reporting directly to the Executive Director, Mukwas are responsible for the safety and security of the Toronto Birth Centre and all people within the facility. The Mukwas work to ensure the facility/staff/visitors are safe and secure, can respond to and assist with different kinds of emergencies, and act as a safety liaison between TBC and the wider community. They are a member of the frontline staff along with the Birth Centre Aides who staff the centre 24/7/365.

Interested applicants are encouraged to apply to the position if they want to work in an Indigenous led health care facility that cares about creating a culturally safer space for everyone. This small and growing organization provides a highly desirable and positive working environment and opportunities for you to learn more about Indigenous peacekeeping roles/responsibilities.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Valid Ontario Security Guard License is preferred however the organization will pay for training and licensing
- Ontario Secondary School Diploma or equivalent with 2-years work/volunteer experience
- Previous Peacekeeping/ Security Experience is preferred
- Excellent inter-personal skills are a requirement

As the Birth Centre is a 24 hour/7days per week/365 days a year facility, candidates must be willing to work flexible days/hours to be determined and attend monthly half day admin meetings.

Please apply by email with cover letter and resume by November 18, 2021 to ed@torontobirthcentre.ca This posting will remain open until filled. A copy of the job description is available upon request.

The Toronto Birth Centre encourages applications from all genders and values a diverse workforce that reflects the communities it serves. Indigenous (to Turtle Island) candidates are especially invited to apply. We thank all interested applicants; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
