

Giving Birth at the TBC

A few facts and figures

53.4%

of people self-identified as members of prioritized communities

16-51

Age range of people who have given birth at TBC

11.3%

of babies born at TBC had siblings born at TBC before them!

71.4%

of people used the tub at some point during their stay at TBC

24.4%

of births at the TBC happened in water

Slow labour progress

was the most common reason to transport to hospital and is not an emergency

9.7%

of first time birthing people admitted to TBC had a C-section in hospital, compared to the provincial average of 19.9%

95.5%

of people who chose to breast/chest feed latched their baby prior to leaving TBC

6.45 hrs

Average time people spent in total at TBC

3 hrs

Average time spent after birth at TBC

For more information about the Toronto Birth Centre go to torontobirthcentre.ca

This infographic reflects 3959 TBC admissions January 31, 2014 to March 31, 2022.

*Provincial averages taken from AOM BORN infographic: www.ontariomidwives.ca/midwifery-numbers